

Hospitality consulting group launched in Dubai

By Staff

Published Sunday, August 31, 2014

Inhoco Group, a privately owned hospitality consultancy firm headquartered in Dubai, has announced its official launch in the International Hospitality Consulting Service Market.

Bringing together more than 200 years of hospitality experience, Inhoco Group offers consultancy services to hotel owners, governments, legal firms, banks, operators, developers, investors and stakeholders.

These services include, but are not limited to, detailed operating and marketing analysis as well as a wide range of financial and feasibility services. Allied to a portfolio of strategic partners offering additional services from security through to branding and creative services, Inhoco Group promises to bring invaluable insights into the nuances of local and international markets, coupled with a unique, global perspective – essential for today's multinational hospitality brands.

SOURCE:

EMIRATES 24/7
31st August 2014